

2024 Short Courses & Summer Schools Participation Bursaries

What is a Participation Bursary?

As part of Guildhall School of Music & Drama's commitment to Access and Participation, we offer a Participation Bursary for eligible applicants to cover the costs of attending some of our Short Courses & Summer Schools, providing those without previous experience of higher education an opportunity to experience conservatoire style teaching. Full bursaries are available for both on-site and online courses, with half bursaries also available for on-site courses only.

Please ensure that you read the following guidance fully before starting the online application form.

Am I eligible for a Participation Bursary?

YOU MUST

- Have no previous experience of higher education
- Be UK-domiciled
- Be between the ages of 11 and 19 on the start date of the course

AND meet one of the following criteria:

- 1) Be in care or a recent care leaver*
- 2) Live in a household which receives income assessed benefits
- 3) Be a recipient of means tested financial support at a Guildhall Young Artists centre.
- 4) Live in a household with a residual annual income of below £33,000 for a full bursary (all courses), and between £33,000 and £46,000 for a half bursary (on-site courses only)

Recent Care Leaver means someone who has been in local authority care for at least 13 weeks in the last 5 years (note, these do not have to be consecutive weeks).

*Residual Household Income is income left after deductions are made for dependents. We deduct £1,130 for each dependent child in the household. Evidence will be required.

How will you know if I am eligible?

Every applicant must provide evidence which demonstrates their eligibility. Examples of accepted evidence for each criteria can be found on page 3. Where the applicant is eligible for criteria 4 only, the Income Assessment on page 3 must be completed and submitted with the evidence. Bursaries cannot be awarded if supporting evidence is not provided. We accept photocopies, scans and photographs of required evidence, and a hardcopy is not necessary. However we cannot accept any evidence that is not clear or of poor quality.

Is there a residency requirement?

Every recipient must be UK-domiciled, and ordinarily resident in the UK. Participation Bursary applications for online courses are welcomed from applicants across the UK. Participation Bursary applications for on-site courses are welcomed from applicants across, and on the outskirts of, London, providing daily travel to London for the course is practical. If you do not ordinarily live within reasonable travel distance to the School, but attending an on-site course is possible (e.g. you have family who you will stay with in London), please email the Access and Participation team so that they know this when shortlisting. You should check with the team pre-application if you have questions about residency requirements.

I've previously received financial support for a Short Course – can I apply again?

Yes! However please note that a limited number of bursaries are available, and so if an applicant has been awarded a Participation Bursary in the current academic year, other applicants will be prioritised during shortlisting for later courses.

Are travel and accommodation bursaries available?

On-site accommodation will not be available for any short courses in 2024. Therefore, we are unable to provide any funded accommodation, and you should take this into consideration when applying for a short course. If you currently attend a Guildhall Young Artists centre and daily travel to Guildhall School is practical, and you require support with travel costs, please contact the Access and Participation team.

How do I apply for the Participation Bursary?

If you believe you satisfy the eligibility requirements and would like to apply for a Participation Bursary please complete the online application form, which can be found on our website.

- If you are 18 or 19 please complete the form yourself.
- If you are 16-17 you can complete the form yourself but a parent/carer must provide consent.
- If you are aged 11-15 a parent or carer should fill out this form on your behalf.

The list of eligible courses on the application form will be updated as new courses are confirmed.

Please ensure that you upload the necessary evidence with your application – you should prepare this before you begin your application.

When do I need to submit my application?

Applications will be accepted until midday on the following dates:

Monday 18th March 2024 – courses running in April 2024

Monday 29th April 2024 – courses running in Summer 2024*

THEN

Monday 3rd June 2024 – remaining courses running in Summer 2024*

Late applications will not be considered.

*Please note that there will be two rounds of allocations for the Summer Short Courses to allow early applicants to find out as soon as possible if they are awarded a bursary. In early May, any remaining participation bursaries will be advertised with the June deadline.

What happens next?

Participation Bursary applications will be eligibility assessed within two weeks of being received. If ineligible, the applicant will be informed immediately. If eligible, the application will be considered alongside all other eligible applications after the relevant deadline. Bursaries are limited and not allocated on a first come, first served basis. Where shortlisting is required, the information provided in the application form will be used to assess who will most benefit from the Participation Bursary. Applicants will be notified of the outcome as soon as possible after the deadline has passed.

If your Participation Bursary application is successful you will be asked to complete the online registration form for the Short Course that the bursary is awarded for. The place on the Short Course is not official until the registration form has been completed – however, if a Participation Bursary is awarded, then a place on the course is reserved until the deadline specified in the offer email. This deadline will differ depending on the course you are applying for. If the registration is incomplete at this point, the place will be released and the Participation Bursary withdrawn.

What if I miss my short course?

We expect that recipients of a Participation Bursary will attend the full course it is awarded for, so that they get the most possible from the experience. However, we appreciate that a participant may fall ill or experience unexpected circumstances that mean they cannot attend a day, or that they need to withdraw from the course completely. Should a participant need to withdraw from a spring short course before it begins because of illness or unavoidable circumstances (e.g. a bereavement) their place can be transferred to a suitable summer course. For summer courses, the participant would be required to reapply for a Participation Bursary the following year, so that we can reassess eligibility. Please note that a change in plans (e.g. booking a holiday), will not be an acceptable reason to transfer a Participation Bursary from spring to summer.

Where can I get help if I need it?

If you have any questions about filling in the application form or supplying evidence then please contact the Access and Participation Team on access@gsmd.ac.uk.

Are all of the eligible course guaranteed to run?

Unfortunately, we are unable to guarantee that all the eligible courses will run. There are a minimum number of participants required for each course so if there are not enough applicants, the course will be cancelled. We will let you know if a course will not run as soon as possible. We may offer you a space on a different course or the option to reserve a space on the course if it runs again.
