ABOUT GYA TAUNTON & GUILDHALL YOUNG ARTISTS

Guildhall Young Artists (GYA) Taunton is an exciting, vibrant, and accessible Saturday performing arts centre based at Wellington School, Wellington.

GYA Taunton is part of a national under-18s network of 6 similar centres which are part of Guildhall Young Artists, a department of Guildhall School of Music & Drama, London. <https://www.gsmd.ac.uk/>

Students aged 5 to 18, from a range of backgrounds, access music and drama training at GYA Taunton in group workshops as well as individual tuition, all delivered by top creative practitioners and industry professionals.

Personalised timetables fit the needs of each student. Every individual is nurtured to create, perform, improvise, and collaborate with peers at regular performances and other learning opportunities.

ABOUT THE ROLE

The successful applicant will devise and deliver weekly individual brass lessons and jazz ensemble rehearsals as well as helping to evolve a rich and inspiring curriculum.

They will have a proven track record and experience in tutoring ensembles and individuals to a high standard. With performance at the heart of all our activities we are looking for someone who can inspire, motivate and demonstrate at a high level.

The post-holder will foster positive relations between departments and with colleagues to develop effective professional partnerships and innovative creative working practices. They will be a reflective practitioner who promotes inclusive practice and who is able to communicate effectively and professionally with students, staff and parents, representing the centre positively at all times.

With means tested bursaries available for talented students this post offers a real opportunity for developing student potential from all backgrounds.

DUTIES

- To deliver high quality individual, small group, and ensemble tuition in line with the Centre's musical aims. Preparation, administration, and meetings as required are included within the hourly pay.
- An open and inclusive teaching approach to ensure all children and young people are fully able to progress and develop. Be able to adapt to students' needs and capabilities to ensure a strong technical, musical, and creative grounding whilst supporting regular collaboration between music, drama and other arts activities at the centre.
- To liaise with centre staff, tutors, and other Guildhall Young Artists centres on collaborative activity.
- To monitor and record the progress, development, and achievement of students throughout their period of study whilst monitoring the individual's welfare.
- To manage and direct students' progression to ensembles and the wide range of activities and opportunities offered at the centre.
- To prepare assigned students for all performing activities both within and outside the centre.
- To help the centre to evolve a rich, inspiring, and ambitious curriculum.
- To participate, if requested, with the Head of Centre and other senior colleagues in the auditioning and admissions procedures (for an additional fee).
- To participate, if requested, with the Head of Centre and other senior colleagues as a member of a panel for student assessments (for an additional fee).
- Act as an advocate for Guildhall Young Artists by promoting the centre as well as Guildhall School of Music & Drama in all outside activities.
- Assist in the recruitment of students with high potential and interest in sustained learning.
- To liaise with staff, students, parents, external providers, and other collaborative partners where appropriate.
- To liaise with providers of student support services within Guildhall Young Artists and provide advice to students with special learning needs.
- To be willing to work out of hours as required for student concerts or other opportunities (for an additional fee).
- To follow health and safety guidelines and promote good practice to students.
- To follow all safeguarding and associated policies.
- To ensure compliance with all other policies and to complete all associated training as required and show a commitment to continued professional development.
- To attend and participate in meetings and monitor GSMD emails regularly.

DISCLOSURE & BARRING SERVICES CHECKS & SAFEGUARDING

- To provide the Head of GYA Taunton with evidence of fitness to carry out the services outlined in the form of prior clearance by the Disclosure and Barring Services (DBS) and shall provide an up-to-date DBS Certificate to the City of London Corporation.

- Continue to be registered with the DBS Update Service throughout the duration of my engagement with the City of London Corporation.
- To abide by Guildhall School's Safeguarding Policy and undertake training as required by Guildhall School. Please find Guildhall School's Safeguarding Policy and other policies at this link.

HEALTH & SAFETY

To take reasonable care for all health and safety matters concerning myself and those around me, in accordance with the City of London Corporation's Health and Safety procedures.

EQUAL OPPORTUNITIES

To conduct all activities taking account of Guildhall School's and City of London Corporation's Equal Opportunities policy, ensuring that all clients, contacts, students and employees are treated fairly and with dignity and respect. To promote Guildhall School's commitment to equality and diversity and to ensure that all students comply with the policy in all their activities.

OTHER RELEVANT INFORMATION

Once an offer of teaching work has been made (and trial period completed), the services would be provided through a Contract for Services on a self-employed basis with City of London Corporation for specific and agreed hours at the hourly rate of £40.50 pro rata (which rate is for academic year 2025-26 and we expect this to change for 2026-27, though the rate has not been confirmed yet).

Please note GYA Taunton opening times are 08:30–16:30 on 30 Saturdays per academic year.
